Headteacher's Weekly Message

Dear Parents and Carers, we have had an extremely busy week here at St. Anne's. On Monday we had some children singing at the Royal Albert Hall, Tuesday we had our school improvement adviser in school which went very well, I'll share more information next week. The children have really enjoyed having the chickens in school, but these leave today to go back to the farm. Please do take a look at the school Instagram account for all the tremendous things that go on in our school. We are immensely proud of the children's achievements. Have a great weekend. Peter Hilton.

Science Week

Thank you Mr Sambrook for a very exciting Science Week. We have had a great time celebrating British Science Week. On top of watching the chicks hatch, we have been learning about sound, plant reproduction, animals and their habitats and light across the school. At Monday's assembly, we had a special visit from one of our school governors Miss Penman and a research scientist to tell us all about their special jobs. The children learnt a lot.

Lent

We remain in the Church season of Lent.

Prayer tables in classrooms have purple cloth.

We are reminded to pray, fast and give to others.

As part of our Lenten focus on prayer, and linked to the Year of Prayer, we continue to offer our daily prayers for each other. This allows us to offer up intentions to God for every member of the school community.

We have also said the Sorry Prayer during assembly, sometimes called the Act of Contrition.

O my God, because you are so good.

I am very sorry that I have sinned against you and by the help of your grace. I will not sin again.

Amen.

Stations of The Cross

This Wednesday we had our first, before school Stations of The Cross for this year. It was very well attended both by parents, pupils & staff. There wasn't enough time to visit the whole stations but it was a prayerful way to start and an insight into the suffering of Our Lord during Lent. There will be Stations of The Cross again next Wednesday 20th March at 8.45am in the school hall.
