

Mission Statement

Jesus defined His mission as follows:

“The Spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for He has anointed me. He has sent me to proclaim the good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives, and to the blind new sight, to set the downtrodden free, to proclaim the Lord’s year of favour.”

Bearing this in mind and conscious of the fact that the knowledge possessed by children is unique to each of them, and that this individuality of knowledge is an expression of the unique relationship between Christ and the child, we as a school community respect that relationship as we strive to bring the good news of freedom, to give sight and to set free.

We endeavour to do this by empowering all of our pupils with a belief in themselves and their abilities, and by equipping them with all the necessary knowledge and skills to realise their full potential.

At St Anne’s Catholic Primary School, we see education as being a partnership between the school, the pupils and their parents, with all parties accepting their role in the partnership and supporting each other and working together in the best interests of all concerned. Our School Mission Statement underlines the fact that it is through our belief in the Gospel and the values it promotes that our children are enabled to develop their potential as individuals and as members of the community.
